

Distinguished Service Award

The AAKF would like to recognize Individuals, Clubs or “Ad Hoc” Groups who have graciously provided AAKF with a specialized “service above self” contribution to our organization either locally at the Regional level or at National level. It is our intention to recognize these efforts and express our appreciation by honoring them with an AAKF “Distinguished Service Award” at the National Championship.

The “Distinguished Service Award” nomination can be submitted by a Regional BOG or by National BOD. The submission will be prepared and signed either by a Regional Director or AAKF President and submitted to the Executive Board for review and vote.

The criteria for nomination shall be based on the following:

1. The relation of the contribution as it compares to AAKF Goals and Mission statement,
2. The result and significance of the contribution,
3. Time and effort required to achieve the end result,
4. The consensus among the Local BOG members or AAKF BOD on the selection.
